

First Unitarian Church of Omaha Stewardship Campaign

May 1 2021 to April 30 2022

Pledge Goal: $280,000
Proposed Budget: $415,100

First Unitarian Church of Omaha needs your financial pledge to keep our church the vibrant community that it is—a place with a stimulating Sunday service, religious education for all ages, opportunities for spiritual growth and fellowship, outstanding music, and an active voice in our city. Our church community is fortunate to have outstanding staff and to be housed in a beautiful historic building. In the coming year, it will cost $1,137 per day to operate the church—to justly compensate staff, maintain the building, and support our programs.

Pledges, large and small, are by far the most significant part of church income.

We need your generous support.

Where your contribution goes:

- Communication & Administration
- Worship
- Music
- Religious Ed & Programming
- Caring & Community Within
- Building & Grounds
- UUA
- New Member Outreach
- Community Outreach

Why pledge? Your pledge or contribution provides a solid basis to plan for the year ahead. Pledging allows the Finance Team to know how much support to expect when planning for staff compensation, building maintenance and operating programs.

What is a fair contribution? Please see the Fair Share Contribution Guide for suggested pledge guidelines based on income. If you have questions, please contact Walt Jesteadt, Church Treasurer, treasurer@firstuomaha.org or Sharon Piehler, Board President, president@firstuomaha.org. Confidential requests to be excused from this year's pledge drive should be directed to Rev. Shari Woodbury, minister@firstuomaha.org.

We are blessed with staff who support our Sunday service, many learning opportunities, outstanding music programs, strong church communications, and beautiful building.

Rev. Shari Woodbury, Minister
Christina Strong, Director of Religious Education
Catharine Dixon, Church Administrator
Carrie Helmberger, Membership Coordinator
Patricia Will, Organist
William Miller, Choir Director
