

Name:

Sunday, June 26

Rev. Sarah Voss Poetry Handout

Match the title of the poem (on the left) with the line of poetry (on the right).

- | | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. The Cost of a Medium-Sized Dog | learned to favor creation over waste |
| 2. Patience | To discover the tulips hidden in the sky |
| 3. The Church, The Stone, and the Grass Widow | and only rain – or baling – could alter the pattern every Sunday meant |
| 4. About Family on this Road Traveled | When the Good Lord says it's time, I'm going to say |
| 5. Blessings from the Bride's Mother | Uncle Art (who left it all to his church), |
| 6. My Mixed Sermon: Short, but No Jokes | a sure sign of resurrection |
| 7. Smiling Over Her Hot Fudge Sundae | I add my ode to you, unborn progeny |
| 8. In My Garden | the hope of the heartened |
| 9. After Seeing Pricey Works of Art in the Local Gallery | and when they learn you want to be a minister |
| 10. Hard Decisions | Brother came back for me, held out his hand, helped me across |